Step 1 – Submission of documents

13. Read the information on the documentation required
14. Select the Upload Files button or drag and drop the files
15. Verify you've read and understood the declaration by checking the box
16. Select the Next button to submit.

Step 1 of 2

13 i To qualify for preservation you must have performed eligible building and construction work which is recorded with an interstate building and construction industry long service scheme.

- You need to provide copies of your Annual Statement/s from the relevant state or territory scheme/s showing the service recorded. Where you have recorded service with more than one interstate scheme you should upload the most recent statement.
- Service recorded in each scheme cannot be transferred, however it may be combined when you make a claim.
- A preservation request does NOT add service days to your record but may extend the time that you are allowed to be out of the NSW building and construction industry and may prevent cancellation of your registration.
